COMMUNICATIONS-BOARD/SUPERINTENDENT

Ms. Latourelle congratulated Bonnie Perez and the CSEA Executive Board members. She thanked Diane Koach for a job well done as President. She congratulated San Dimas High School football team for an outstanding season. She wished good luck to Bonita High School as they go to the CIF Finals on Friday, December 10. She expressed that she is very proud of the athletics in the District. She wished happy holidays to everyone.

Ms. Koach congratulated Mike Kelly for being selected as the San Dimas Citizen of the Year. She wished everyone a nice holiday season.

Mr. Coyne thanked Diane Koach for her year as President. He congratulated Bonnie Perez and the new CSEA Executive Board for their election. He wished everyone a restful holiday break. He noted everyone will be cheering for the Bearcats on Friday night at the football game. Both of the high school teams have done an outstanding job.

Mr. Creiman thanked Diane Koach for her leadership as President. He congratulated Bonnie Perez and the CSEA Executive Board. He reported attending the Mt. SAC Joint Board dinner and commented on the good program they offer to the students. He noted it was valuable to see how our Bonita Unified School District students can be better prepared for college. He wished Bonita High good luck on Friday night and congratulated the San Dimas High football team for an outstanding year. He noted it is very unique to have two high school teams attend the CIF finals.

Mr. Elliot reported attending the Bonita High School Winter Concert for the Chamber Singers. He reported on the very positive comments Todd Helm made regarding the support for the arts by the District administration. He thanked Dr. Rapkin for his guidance and taking the lead to develop the VIP Program connecting city officials from the two cities with particular schools in the District. He congratulated Mike Kelly as the San Dimas Citizen of the Year. He noted appreciation for the San Dimas High Chamber Singers for an outstanding performance at tonight's Board Meeting. He thanked Lone Hill for the artwork on display in the Boardroom. He congratulated Bonnie Perez and the CSEA Executive Board. He noted the importance of her leadership and commitment.

Dr. Rapkin thanked Diane Koach for a great year. He congratulated the CSEA Executive Board and noted appreciation for their leadership and noted how well they represent the classified employees and support of the students. As we move into the holiday season, he noted that State finds itself again in a budget deficit. He commented that yesterday was the first day of the new legislative session in Sacramento and they put through 131 bills. However, very few of which get to the heart of the issues in the State, which is an example of the leadership in Sacramento. We need to continue to make our voices heard with the leadership in Sacramento. He noted appreciation for the outstanding teaching, classified staff, and administrators with the whole BUSD team doing tremendous things for our students and families. He wished everyone a wonderful holiday and stated that we need to step back and count our blessings.
