

BONITA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE WORKSHOP FOR PARENTS

The Bonita Unified School District is offering a free, 6-week English as a Second Language workshop for parents in our district. This workshop is designed to help parents who want to improve their own daily conversational English skills and learn how to support their students at home.

English Language Development instruction will include interactive lessons to teach reading, writing, listening and speaking. Participants will also use the Rosetta Stone program to increase vocabulary, improve pronunciation, understand grammatical structure, and sharpen listening skills.

Child care is available free of charge with advance notice

To register: Please complete the registration form and return to your school site secretary. Enrollment is limited to 30 participants. Registration will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Questions: Please contact Aurora Veliz, EL Clerk — 909-971-8200, ext. 5326 or Email veliz@bonita.k12.ca.us
