Report on Current Status of California High School Exit Exam

8281. Dr. Schneider gave a report updating the Board on the most current information regarding the status of the California High School Exit Exam (CAHSEE). Dr. Schneider reviewed the criteria that the state requires for a high school diploma. She reported that a legal challenge to the CAHSEE was raised and supported by Alameda Superior Court with a Temporary Injunction on May 12, 2006. On May 24, 2006 the California Supreme Court granted a request by the California Department of Education to stay the lower court order. This action by the California Supreme Court reinstate the CAHSEE as a condition for graduation, except for students with learning disabilities who meet the special needs requirements. Currently, the case has been sent to the First Appellate District (San Francisco) Court of Appeal. It is anticipated that the Court of Appeal will take action during the summer of 2006 regarding the status of the CAHSEE as a requirement for graduation.
