

New Aeries User Interface

Aeries has improved the look and design of Aeries.NET. All the functionality and usage of the screens still remain the same and the changes are cosmetic. The demo site is available to preview using the link below.

Key highlights

- Switch between different years within Aeries.NET is now possible without having to log out!
- Forms is now called “Pages”. The Pages search is now on top of the screen and pages are easily searchable!
- Searching for reports are now at the top of the screen!

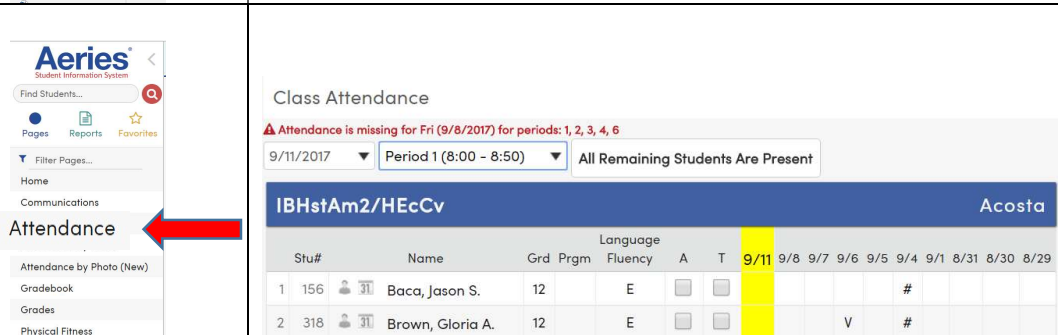

Below are highlights of the improved screens

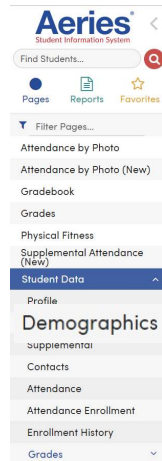

Student search still works the same as before. The one big addition is “Reverse Lookup” is now part of Aeries.NET and works as it did in CS!

Classroom Attendance still operates as it did in the past. You can still select specific dates to update attendance. The attendance codes to use remain the same.

The Student Demographics page and layout remains the same. The major change is a cleaner and more responsive page.
